DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Species A, figure 1 in Paper No. 6 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that no basis is given as required by MPEP 816 and an examination of all the species would not present a substantially greater burden. This is not found persuasive because the basis as required by MPEP 816 applies to restriction of inventions and not to election of species requirement for. Applicant's allegation of non-burdensome search is unsupported by facts.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

2. Claims 4-20 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in Paper No. 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Claim 1 recites "a field applier forming an equipotential surface" in line 4. The "field applier" appears to be in reference to the DC voltage source 5. If so, what is the "equipotential surface"? If the "equipotential surface" is in reference to the conductive nozzle plate 3, the "field applier forming an equipotential surface" appears to be a double inclusion of the "liquid holder" recited in line 2.

Claim 2 recites "a conductive nozzle plate" in line 2. It appears to be a double inclusion of the "liquid holder" recited in line 2.

Claim 3 recites "a concave portion" in line 2. It appears to be a double inclusion of the "equipotential surface convexed with respect to the liquid surface" recited in claim 1, lines 4-5.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hochberg, deceased et al. (4,046,074).

Art Unit: 3752

Hochberg et al. discloses a liquid sprayer comprising: a liquid holder 30; a field applier 40, 42; a conductive nozzle plate 30; a first opening 44; a second opening (concave portion of 30); an object 12.
